LA FAYETTE LOG

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they, too, have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.* Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.* Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass.* Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrending the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.* You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.* Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.* With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.*

Just as the whole is the sum of its parts, so is the band only the total of its members. The expectant, critical look on the face of our director, Mr. T., as he watches our first performance . . . a trombone player turning to offer last minute advice . . . the radiating pride of a majorette as she stands before the crowd . . . this is the spirit of our 72-73 S.F. Senior Marching Band!

"A Homecoming Fable"

ONCE upon a time, there was a beautiful queen who lived in South Fayette.
She was loved by all her subjects throughout the township.
All was well in the land
until one day the queen had to leave.
She sent a call far and wide for a maiden to come forth and take her place.

Out of the land came five beautiful girls to try for the coveted honor of Homecoming Queen.

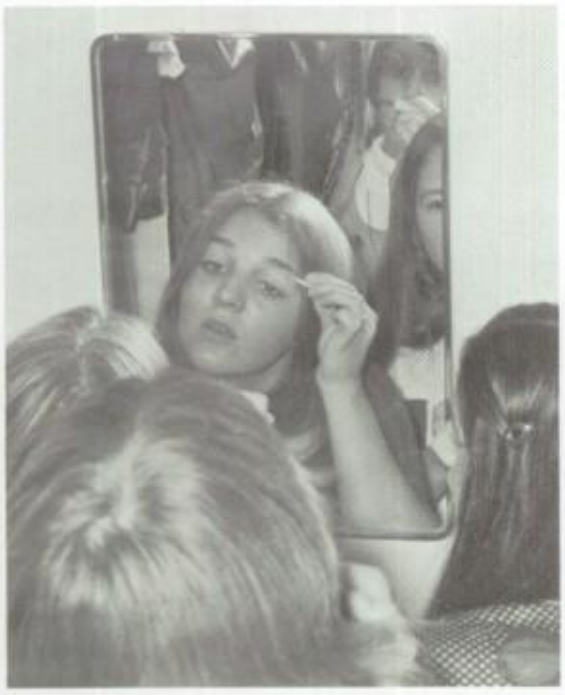
The competition was difficult and lengthy, but finally came the day to pick the queen. Which of the five would be chosen? People from miles around gathered to hear the announcement. Through the cool night air came a voice. "The 1972-73 Homecoming Queen is . . . Miss Rebecca Heaps!"

The land happily welcomed their new queen as she drove away to begin her reign . . .

THE END



"Let it be a challenge."

Class, did you do your homework?

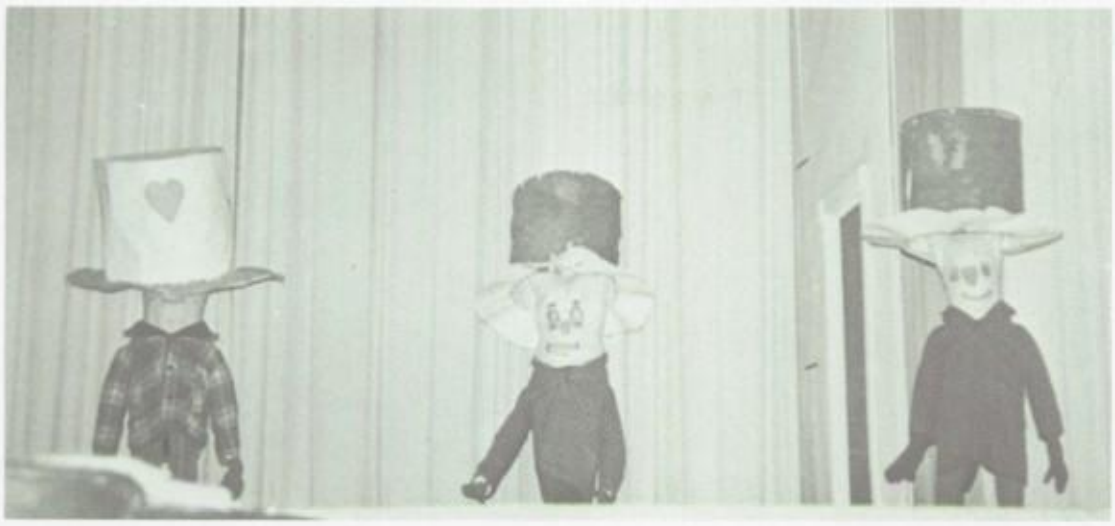
Miss Barret, call on me!!

The subject is MacBeth.

Hi, Teach . . .

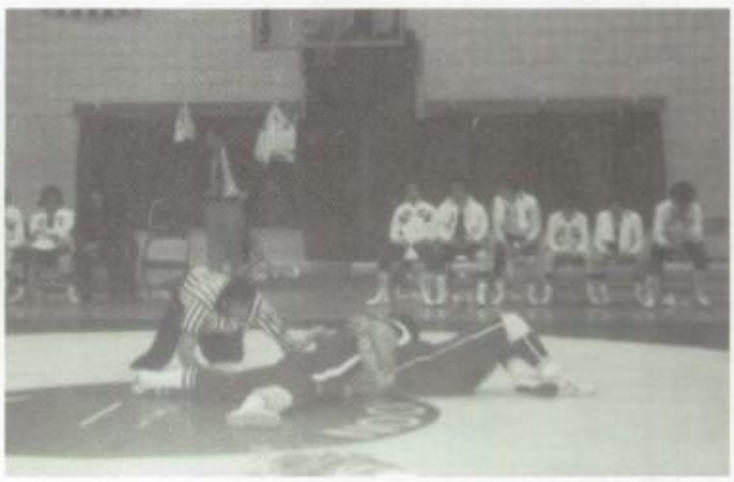
Hi, Pupe.

Tryouts . . . "I made it!" . . . now the books . . . first rehearsal . . . "I don't know my lines" . . . "Shut up, backstage!" . . . opening night . . . "Give me a book, quick!" . . . "Is it a full house?" . . . putting on all that make-up . . . "Let me see the mirror, quick!" . . . everyone up on stage . . . the curtain opens . . . your heart stops . . . your first line . . . relief . . . oh, no, a mistake . . . panic . . . a quick cover-up . . . intermission . . . "Already?" . . . dressing room scenes after the mad rush to change . . . the play goes on . . . the last line . . . the curtain closes . . . sighs of relief . . . curtain call . . . applause . . . the curtain falls . . . signing the scenery after it's all over . . . cast party . . . your contribution to the total sum of things is yourself.



Few people, except for those involved, realize how long it takes to put a program together. The Chorus, Dance Band and Brass Choir spend mornings and evenings learning new songs and perfecting older ones.

As show time draws nearer, skits are put together, last minute ideas are inserted, and rehearsals become almost hectic. Mr. Puff sweats at the piano, trying to inspire a jittery chorus. Mr. Testa tunes up the Brass Choir. Stage crew members hurry frantically to fix the mike that won't work. Nerves are taut. There are so many things that might go wrong. Then, the lights go down, a hush falls over the audience and the curtain opens . . . . . .

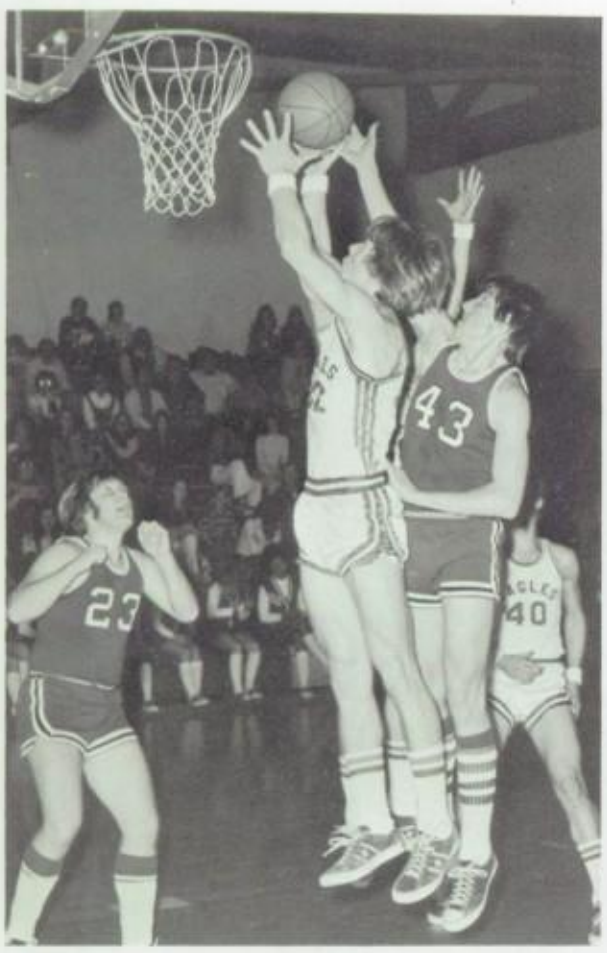


What is an S.F. wrestler?? He is a guy determined to lose weight and determined to win. The concentration during each match is contagious, spreading to the team and fans. Success or defeat is felt by all. The result in the end is an orange offered with a smile.

An S.F. wrestler is a guy who never gives up when the going gets tough. He's a guy who can take defeat, knowing that he gave his all. An S.F. wrestler is always a winner!

This has been the year of the Hoop . . . . . .

From the very beginning it was a lot of hard work and practice, practice, practice.



However, the end rewards were well worth the effort. Two school records were broken and the Jr. High streaked on to a championship with an undefeated season. Ray Laval, in the game against Avella, broke Larry Piazza's record by scoring 59 points. Lester Jones broke Ray's Jr. High record with 43 points.

Although the girls' basketball team won no championship, they made a valiant attempt. For this we can also be proud of them.

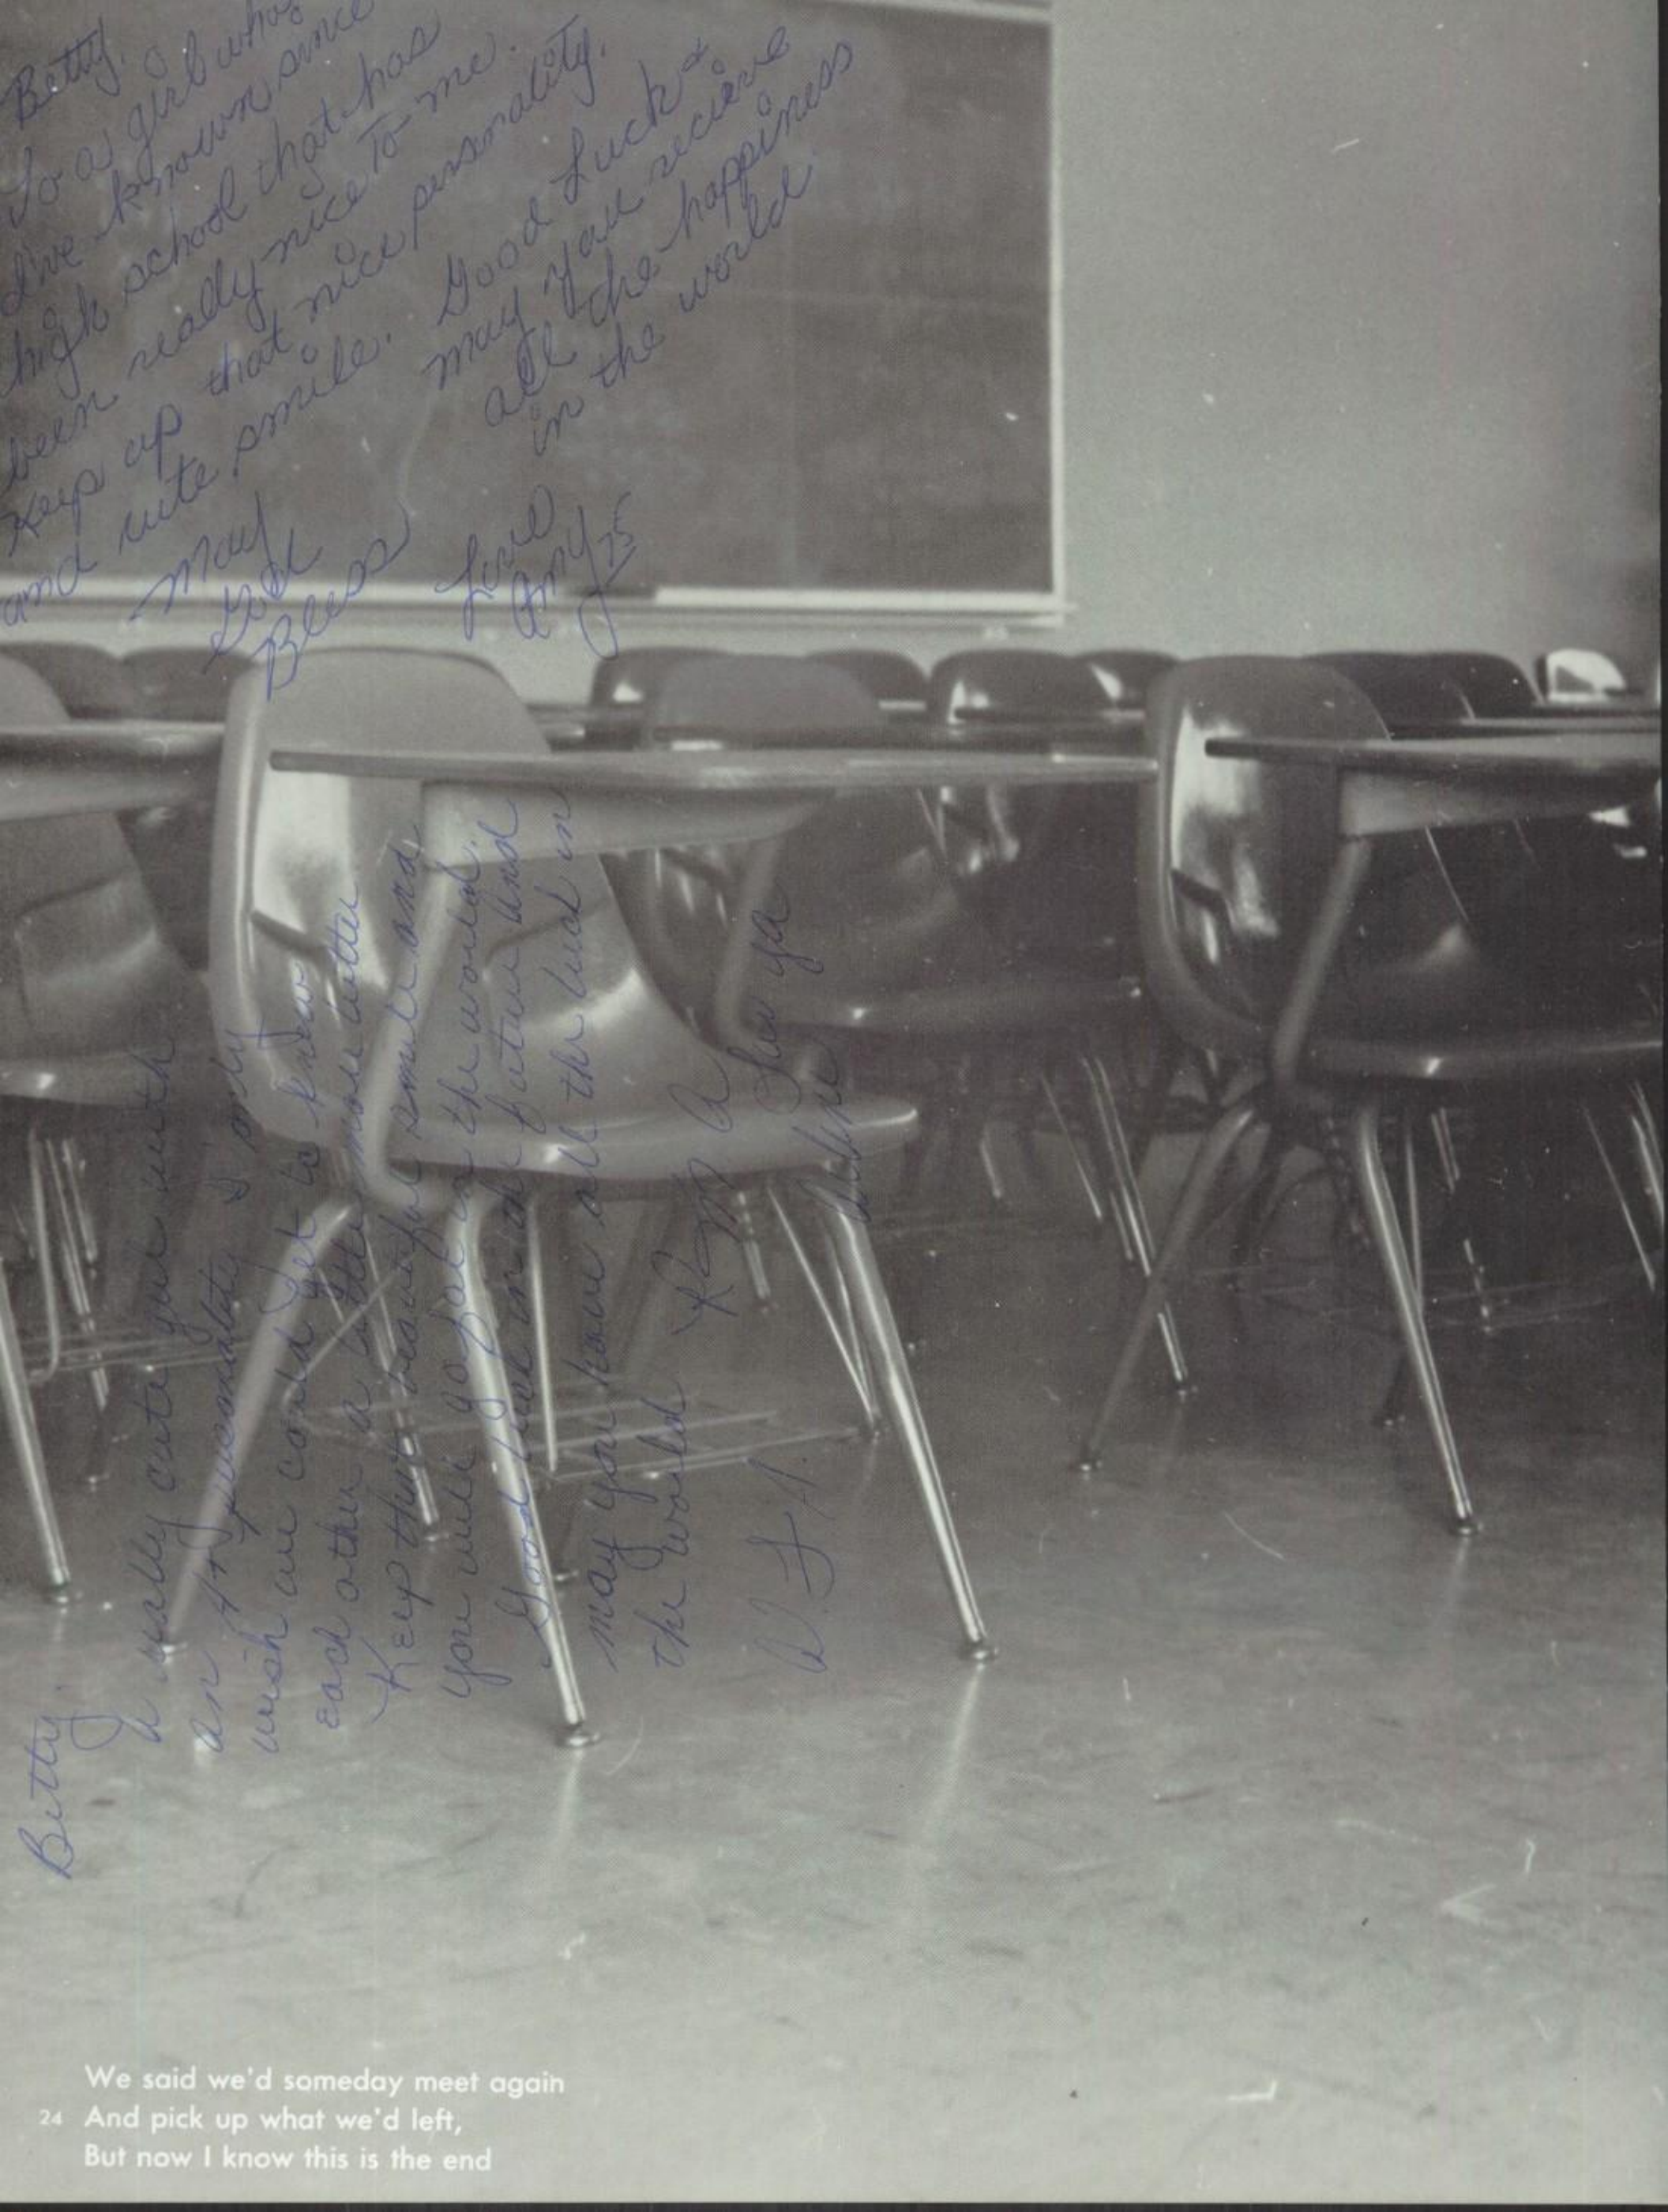
We said we'd never part,
We said we'd be the best of friends
Even from the very start . . .

But we've had our laughs,
We've shed our tears,
And now we say good-bye
To some memorable years . . .



We said we'd someday meet again
And pick up what we'd left,
But now I know this is the end

. . . so good-bye, my friend.

Baby Pictures

Isn't this dance ours?

I wasn't gonna steal it. Honest, mister!

Here I am — sweet and innocent.

I'm a little teapot . . .

Me and Yogi are eloping

Food on the floor sure tastes funny!

Who's in the bathroom?! I gotto go!

We ate the whole thing!

I'M being good today.

Here I am at the 1959 Winter Olympics.

I can't wait 'til I get out of these sissy shorts!!

I think the draft made a mistake.

. . . and here I am on the cover of Vogue . . .

Am I close enough to the camera?

Aw shoot, my mother never tells me nothin'.

I ain't got no monkey on my back.

He can't be here already?!

Do WHAT??

CENSORED

Auntie Ann bought me this slip.

He THINKS I'm going to share the toys.

Don't step on me. I am not a bug.

I'm lost! M-O-M-M-I-E!!!

The king — and all his men.

Hi Guy!!

I told you I had to go to the bathroom!

. . . and my telephone number is 221-1234.

Go on and hit me with your stick — nothing hurts me!

Do you like my new coat?

Wanna have some REAL fun??

I came back and I'm glad I did!

I wish they'd hurry and take the picture. I'm getting a cramp!

Aren't I cuter than that ol' snowman?

I'm waiting, Prince Charming . . .

If you ask me, I got gypped.

MOMMY! A bad ol' fly is chasing me!

I really wanted a football outfit.

Actually . . .

Am I getting tan yet?

Should I or shouldn't I . . . I should.

Try that again and I'll slug you!

I got everything for my birthday — except for the horse!

G-o-l-l-y, I forgot my gun!

Hey, How'd ya like to pull my sled??

Can I help it if I'm shy?

I'm ready for the match . . . let me at 'em!

I'm giving these worms to my sister.

Hit her and I'll bite your knee cap!

But — I am watching the birdie!!

That does it. I'm getting in the big pool.

All alone am I.

Dale Evans never had it so good!

Rocking horses are O.K. but cars are better.

Grazing in the grass is a gas . . .

My girdle is killing me!!!

Are you sure this is how the West was won?

Is Christmas ever going to come???

O-o-o, you forgot the hot water!

That's a long drop!!!

Just try and get in my yard again, buddy.

Say it again! Go ahead!

Security.

Ain't I just the cutest little thing?

C'mon! Follow me!

Happiness is having a warm puppy.

Just feel these muscles!!!

H-e-y, check the shape on that one.

How's about a little push?

Oops! Time for a change.

Why does HE have to be in the picture?

But what does it do?

My son/daughter _____ has my permission to go to Gettysburgh with the eigth grade class on May 1, 1969.

Administration

Each year, members of all graduating classes are warned of the challenges they must face on the sea of life as they leave their snug harbors of school and home.

The storms you will encounter can be weathered safely if you rely on your own innate abilities and the strong anchors of faith and hope your parents, your church, and your schools have helped you to forge. Your ports-of-call and your cargo lists will depend upon the seaworthiness of your craft. Your teachers have tried to give you the proper maps and compasses; so trim your sails and steer a true course. At this point, all we can say at your launching, is . . . "BON VOYAGE."

South Fayette Hockey Team

Hockey has come to South Fayette and we hope it's here to stay.

It takes a lot to start something and make it a success — initiative, determination, cooperation, and money. Equipment must be bought by each player. Rinks have to be rented for practices and games. (A 2-hour practice costs $70; a game costs $25.) There are usually one practice and one game a week. Since the team is not financially backed by the school, all the money must come from the parents and players themselves.

There is no profit involved, since admission cannot be charged. This, if nothing else, should prove that our South Fayette Hockey Team plays for love of the sport. For this, we congratulate them and wish them continued success. Good Luck, guys!

Senior Class

We thought it would be nice to have an informal picture of the Senior Class. If you look at the details of this picture, you will recall much of the individual's attitude, conduct, associates, etc.

Yes, it was a cold day. Who needs winter clothing when you're young, gay, and daring.

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they, too, have their story. * Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.* Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.* Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass.* Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrending the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.* You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.* Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.* With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.*

— Max Ehrmann
